New Hire
• Receives email with secure link to Personal Information Form (PIF)

Dear Sample NewHire,

Congratulations and welcome to Columbia University’s Medical Center. At Columbia University Medical Center, you will interact with amazing and diverse staff, in a positive working environment, that is both intellectually stimulating and professionally challenging. We are committed to attracting and retaining the best and brightest in the workforce to support our mission of excellence in higher education, patient care and research.

Each new employee needs a personalized University Network Identification (UNI) account which provides access to a wide variety of online tools and resources designed to help you succeed in your new position. It is extremely important that we create your account as soon as possible. Once your UNI is created, you will be able to activate it online which will allow other important tasks to be completed before your arrival on campus.

To get started with creating your Columbia University UNI, please click the link below and complete your Personal Information Form as soon as possible:

CUMC HR Personal Information Form

If the link above does not work, copy and paste the following link into your browser:

Update UNI for Sample NewHire

- Add UNI
- Personal Information Form
- Update Prospective Employee

Use this form to update or add the UNI for an employee. This will send an email to the employee's personal email address with instructions on how to activate their new UNI.

Employee UNI: sn2014

Update UNI
Dear Sample NewHire,

Thank you for completing your Personal Information Form.

Your University Network Identification (UNI) is: sn2014.

Your UNI consists of your initials plus an arbitrary number. It is the key to accessing computer services and electronic resources at Columbia including e-mail, library information on the World Wide Web, Human Resources and benefits information, and payroll information. Please remember to type your UNI in lower case when you log in.

Follow the instructions below to activate your Columbia UNI and to create your password.

1. Please activate your UNI at http://cut.columbia.edu/cut/manage-my-uni

2. The next step in accessing University systems is to demonstrate eligibility to work in the United States. The Immigration Reform and Control Act requires that you provide proof of eligibility to work in the United States, by using the I-9 form. Instructions are available at http://hr.columbia.edu/wps/portal/hr/hr/Product/GeneralEmployeeHandbook/09_I-9Form/Instructions. Please take a few minutes to fill out the I-9 Form directly on-line prior to your start date. Note that within three business days of your start date, you must go in person to an I-9 Service Center to complete the I-9 process which will require that you present us with original documents, as listed in Section 1 of the I-9 online, to indicate that you are eligible to work in the United States. Your departmental HR representative will provide you with the location of the most convenient I-9 Service Center on or before your first day of work.

Once eligibility to work in the United States has been verified you will be given access to the University’s systems.

Further information on the uses and benefits of your Columbia account will be provided during our Orientation-Welcome Program which will be scheduled by your hiring department. Please contact Thomas de Leon with any questions by emailing td2241@columbia.edu or calling 212-342-3748. For further assistance you can contact CUMC Human Resources at 212-305-Help (365-4367) option # 1.

Sincerely,

CUMC Human Resources
