CUIMC Human Resources Presents:
This Is Not A Riot! Black Lives Matter Panel Discussion

Dr. Tyesha Maddox
Assistant Professor
African/African-American Studies
Fordham University

Daniel Joslyn
PHD Candidate
History
New York University

Join us for a two-part conversation with Dr. Tyesha Maddox and Daniel Joslyn about their resource guide This Is Not A Riot (notariot doc link ) pertaining to the recent protests against discriminatory policing and the Black Live Matter movement.

The first session on July 8th will establish a common ground on which we can meet one another and explore the concept of listening on other people’s terms regarding the recent race related uprising.

The second session on July 15th will challenge participants to further understand the needs of the movement for black lives, how to support & find ways of applying these demands into their everyday lives.

Part 1: Wednesday, July 8th, 2020 1:00 - 2:30 pm
Please register here

Part 2: Wednesday, July 15th, 2020 1:00 - 2:30 pm
Please register here

All Columbia University staff and faculty are welcome to attend.

For more information visit: CUIMC HR Staff Diversity Inclusion Site or email: custaffdiversity@cumc.columbia.edu